SPECIAL TO-NIGHT.....THE WHEELS OF FATE.....TWO REEL SELIG

Upon circumstantial evidence, an unhappily married, though rising, young author is convicted and sentenced for a brutal murder. Through a strange chain of circumstances, which reached its climax in a shipwreck at sea the innocent man is saved from death in the electric chair.

Wireless telegraphy is used to carry the confession of the guilty man to the death chamber in the prison. Arriving in the nick of time, this message not only liberates the innocent man, but joins two happy hearts.

The third reel to-night will be:

BRONCHO BILLY'S OATH.....Essanay Western
Broncho Billy robs the stage to pay his pal's doctor bill. Later the pal betrays him on account of a girl.

Show starts.....Admission 5c.

BADLY BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Leo McClain, of Gettysburg, Caught in Explosion of Gas at Philadelphia.
Loses All his Hair and is Painfully Burned.

Leo McClain, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McClain, of East Railroad street, is lying in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, severely burned as the result of an explosion of gas on Wednesday. His injuries are so severe that it is expected he will be compelled to remain under the care of the hospital physicians for fully a month.

For several years the young man has been employed in the offices of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Philadelphia as a clerk. Late Wednesday afternoon he and two other clerks, Harry Moore and Thomas Wilkinson, went to a vault to put some books away. They had detected a slight odor of gas during the day which became decidedly more pronounced when they opened the door to the vault.

Some one either turned on the electric light or struck a match and in an instant there was a terrific explosion. All three were thrown to the floor and other employees at the place hurried to them, threw overcoats over their heads and succeeded in putting out the flames.

An ambulance was summoned and all were removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital where it was found that Mr. McClain's injuries were the most serious. All the hair was burned from his head, his face and arms were badly burned and he received slight injuries to other parts of his body. Moore escaped with slight burns and has been discharged from the hospital while Wilkinson is still there undergoing treatment.

William McClain, father of the injured boy, returned home from Philadelphia Thursday evening, having gone down as soon as he learned of his son's misfortune. He reports the young man as suffering considerably but otherwise getting along in a very satisfactory way. He is 22 years of age.

HOFFMAN—HANKEY

Pretty Home Wedding near Orrtanna at Noon Wednesday.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Anna Hankey, near Orrtanna, at noon Thursday when her daughter, Miss Ethel Hankey, and John Hoffman, of Creagerstown, Md., were married by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. K. Fleck, of Fairfield.

During the ceremony they stood beneath an arch of pines from which was suspended a pine wedding bell. The bride wore a gown of electric blue messaline and carried a small Bible. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hankey, of Orrtanna.

An elaborate dinner was served immediately after the ceremony at the bride's home to a large number of friends and relatives. At ten o'clock in the evening many gathered for an old-time calithumpian serenade. Until April first Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will reside at the bride's home after which they will take up their residence on the bridegroom's farm near Creagerstown.

ANNUAL LIQUOR LICENSE COURT

Valley View Hotel at Bittinger the Only One in the County against which a Remonstrance was Filed.
Two Adverse Petitions.

At the annual license court this morning all the licenses asked were granted with the exception of the Valley View Hotel at Bittinger against the granting of which two remonstrances were filed.

Harry F. Devine had sixty six signers to his petition for the granting of license, while two petitions were presented remonstrating, the one having twenty nine signatures and the other thirty six.

The remonstrances were identical and alleged that the license was not necessary and the applicant not a fit person to whom license should be entrusted. They also alleged "that said hotel is located at a place where there is no adequate police protection or supervision, and the hotel has become a hangout and rendezvous for loose and disreputable characters from Hanover and vicinity, seriously affecting the neighborhood and demoralizing the peace and good morals of the community."

Mr. Devine stated in his testimony that he had a verbal agreement to rent the hotel at $10 a month, and that he intended to go there whether or not the license were granted. He stated that he had no agreement with the parties from whom he expected to lease the building regarding the kind of beer to be sold in case he got license.

Charles S. Duncan represented Mr. Devine, and William Hersh and J. Donald Swope the remonstrants. The case proved interesting. It had not been decided upon going to press.

The last year's license at the Valley View Hotel was revoked some weeks ago.

TO PLANT TREES ON LINCOLN WAY

Fountains to be Erected at Intervals.
Suggest Building Sections of the Road as Private Memorials. Other
Plans now Maturing.

Plans to beautify the Lincoln Highway, making it attractive in appearance as well as useful, are now being considered by the officers of the association. It is proposed next spring on Arbor Day to have the children of the public and parochial schools plant trees along the side of the road. William Miller, professor of horticulture of the State University of Illinois, and Edward C. Rumley, of the Interlaken School, Rolling Prairie, Ind., have endorsed the project.

"During six years of residence in Germany the advantage of their system of growing trees along public highways interested me", says Prof. Rumley. "The State of Baden collects from $250,000 to $400,000 annually from the fruit of these trees and they also add greatly to the attractiveness of the highways. It should be possible to create further interest in the Lincoln Highway by inducing the schools of the country, adjacent to the Highway, to set aside a day next spring on which their children could plant trees. This would be an invaluable lesson in school work, as well as a contribution to the Highway."

While patriotically inclined citizens over all the country are supporting the Lincoln Highway by volunteering to assume the expenses of sections of that highway, to be dedicated as memorials should they desire, a citizen of Los Angeles desires in memory of his mother to install along the route across the state of Illinois at suitable intervals, drinking fountains for the use, not only of pedestrians, but of motorists.

"While this patriotic gentleman from Los Angeles doesn't say so", remarked an officer of the association "it is fair to presume that the suggestion came to him after reading or hearing of the wish of a wealthy resident of a small country village in Illinois to establish ten miles of Lincoln Highway in memory of himself after his death."

WON FIRST GAME

Opened Basket Ball Season in Fast
Game on the Local Floor.

The first game of college basketball for this season was played in the gymnasium Thursday evening when Gettysburg defeated Bloomsburg Normal 37 to 24. The game was fast and exciting throughout. Bloomsburg took the lead early in the first half and rolled up a good lead before Gettysburg got started. Bloomsburg led at the end of the half 14 to 10. Gettysburg came back with a rush in the second, overtook the visitors and rapidly forged ahead. Campbell scored 22 of Gettysburg's points. Mehall's foul shooting in the latter period produced a number of points. The floor has been greatly improved by the removal of the north gallery and the erection of several screens. The lighting facilities have also been improved.

The Catholic High School team defeated the Clover Leaf quintet in Xavier Hall Thursday evening 7 to 1.

HIS OWN DENTIST

County Farmer Tells Strange Tale

George Shelleman, who resides on the road from New Oxford to New Chester, exhibits several pieces of jaw-bone taken from a hog recently slaughtered by him at his home, which had a number of teeth in each piece of the jaws that were crowned by lead or some similar metal. The cavities and crevices in the teeth were covered with the metal as evenly and neatly as a dentist would do the work in the mouth of a person. Mr. Shelleman says the hog had never got outside the barn yard, and where it got the metal or of what species it is he is not able to say.

OWNS ENTIRE TOWN

CRUEL TO HUSBAND

Says Wife Beat Him on Head with Shovel.

Mrs. Mary A. Wolford and son, Charles, of near Pen Mar, appeared before Justice Newman in Waynesboro Tuesday evening and gave bail in the sum of $200, for their appearance at court, to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred by the husband and father, Charles E. Wolford, Waynesboro.

The altercation upon which the charge is based occurred at the home of the defendants, Monday. Wolford went there to get a snow plow out of the barn. The son claimed the plow was his mother's and refused to allow the father to take it away. This led to an altercation in which the son, in self defense, as he claims, struck the father on the head with a can of tar that was sitting nearby. The commotion attracted the mother, who was shoveling snow from a garden walk with a fire shovel. She ran to the defense of her son and in the melee struck her husband pretty hard over the head with the shovel, felling him to the ground.

There are several charges of assault and battery pending against him in the quarter sessions court of Franklin County, brought by his wife, and he is under a $400 bond to keep the peace towards her.

SAME WAY HERE

Chambersburg Councilmen also Disregarded Party Lines.

Gettysburg's town council was not the only one in the state that failed to observe party lines in making their appointments. A fight was made in the Chambersburg town council against Charles H. Patterson, who succeeded in being re-elected city clerk, on the ground that he is a Socialist. The police force has but one Republican on it, the chief, although the council stands seven Republicans to three Democrats. No council in Chambersburg ever paid less attention to politics than has this one.

MOYER BACK IN COPPER DISTRICT

Appears Before Grand Jury Investigating Deportation.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 9. — Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, has returned to the copper strike district, from where he was deported two weeks ago. He appeared before the grand jury which is investigating his deportation.

Moyer's departure from Chicago was in secret, a carefully arranged system having been arranged to cover up his tracks.

His sudden return to the copper district is said to be connected with a conference held by Governor Ferris with some unidentified men. It has been known that the governor was anxious to see a grand jury investigation of the Moyer-Tanner deportation gotten under way.

Moyer, who was accompanied by Charles H. Tanner, auditor of the Federation, who was deported with him, came to Houghton under guard of deputy sheriffs. Arrangements for the safe return of the labor leaders were made by Grant Fellows, attorney general of Michigan.

WOMAN'S BODY IN RIVER

Mystery Surrounds the Death of Girl
Clothed in Blue.

New York, Jan. 9. — Mystery surrounds the finding of the body of a young woman floating in the Harlem river.

Her hat, serge suit, gloves, handkerchief, underclothes and stockings, everything she wore was of the same color, blue. In her pocket was found a small Swedish Bible, on the fly leaf of which was written: "Ann Marie Lindberg, the 20th day, this month, 1907."

The woman was about thirty years old, five feet two inches tall and weighed 130 pounds. She had golden hair, which, worn in two braids, reached almost to her ankles.

On her handkerchief was an initial L. and fifty-four cents was knotted in one corner of it. The body apparently had not been in the water for more than an hour. Her lungs were full of water, indicating that she had drowned and had not met with any foul play previously. Detectives are searching Harlem for some clue to her identity.

Drew Lots For $4,000,000.

Springfield, Ohio, Jan. 9. — Drawing numbered slips of paper out of a box was the method used to divide the $4,000,000 estate of the late Ross P. Mitchell, real estate owner, among his three daughters. The three heirs could not agree on a division, so appraisers numbered the property and the drawing was made.

JURY DISAGREES IN SCHWINDT CASE

Refuse to Convict Woman Found in Hotel With Lawyer.

HER BAIL IS RENEWED

The Scandal Followed a Joy Ride Last September From Philadelphia to Allentown.

Allentown, Pa., Jan. 9. — Hopelessly deadlocked on the question of the innocence or guilt of the defendant, the jury that heard the story of the alleged escapade of Mrs. Mary Josephine Fagan Schwindt, the pretty wife of Dr. Louis W. Schwindt, of Philadelphia, reported to Judge Clinton A. Groman that it was unable to agree on a verdict and was discharged.

An hour before the members of the jury had filed into the court and made a similar report, but Judge Groman sent them back to their room to deliberate further.

"You look like sensible men," said the court, "and it seems to be that the differences of opinion among you cannot be so great that you cannot agree upon a verdict. Go back and see whether you cannot arrive at an understanding."

The jury retired again, but they failed to agree and so reported to the court.

The members were immediately discharged, and District Attorney Lawrence H. Rupp announced that at once he would put the case on the list for trial at the April term of criminal court.

The jury was out more than seven hours. It is understood that the members stood six to six on every ballot. The discussion, it is said, grew very warm at times and from the outside curious spectators observed with much amusement the waving of the arms of the jurors.

Mrs. Schwindt, who was tried for a misdemeanor alleged to have followed a joy ride on Sept. 9, 1913, by a party of which she and Charles T. Jacks, a Philadelphia lawyer and friend of her husband, were members, and also included Katherine Murphy, a Philadelphia nurse, and Miss Nellie Dwyer, of South Bethlehem, besides two companions of Jacks, expressed her disappointment over the failure of the jury to agree, but said she was confident of her ultimate acquittal of the charge, which was based on the discovery of herself and Jacks in a darkened room of the Hotel Hamilton about midnight.

Mrs. Schwindt, it was testified, was lying on the bed and Jacks sat beside her when the detectives entered the room. Judge Groman ordered O. C. Diener, proprietor of the Hotel Hamilton, to appear before him and warned him to be more careful in giving rooms to guests, and he declared that if joy riders intend to make Allentown their Mecca they had better take heed and give the city a wide berth.

Immediately after the disagreement of the jury Mrs. Schwindt renewed her bail.

NEW UNIFORMS FOR GUARD

Officers Are Required to Send in the Measurements at Once.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 9. — General orders from National Guard headquarters have announced that woolen olive-drab service uniforms will be issued for the men or organizations of the state militia, a special form of requisition being made up for them.

The officers will be requested to have measurements made at once of the men and requisitions forwarded promptly.

The uniform is to be worn by the guardsmen at the inspection of the organizations in April. The order declares that one olive drab cotton service uniform should be retained by company commanders for each enlisted man for use during the coming campaign.

BOTH ASK DIVORCE

Father Charges Desertion, While Daughter Claims Infidelity.

Baltimore, Jan. 9. — With different grounds of action in each suit, a father and daughter instituted proceedings asking absolute divorces.

The father is Hugh Campbell. His daughter, Mrs. Ella Evera Dunn, who brought action through him, is a minor and lives with him.

Mrs. Florence E. Campbell is named defendant in the father's suit. According to the bill, she deserted him.

After three years of married life, his daughter, a child bride, married when she was sixteen years old, seeks a divorce from William Dunn. She alleges unfaithfulness.

First Steamer Through Canal.

ALLEGED ELOPERS ARRESTED

J. M. Foster and Delilah Bradley, of Pemberton, N. J., Found in Mobile,
Mobile, Ala., Jan. 9. — J. M. Foster, forty-five years old, a millionaire of Brown's Mill, N. J., president of the International Poultry Sales company, was placed under arrest by local government officials on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act.

With Foster was a beautiful young woman, whose name is Delilah Bradley, of Pemberton, N. J., and a former stenographer employed by Foster.

The two were arrested at a leading hotel, where they registered on Dec. 23 as Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foster, of New York. They have been living at the hotel since that date.

They were arraigned before United States Commissioner Richard Jones, Jr., and Foster was held under $2000 bond for his appearance for a preliminary hearing on Jan. 14. The woman was held as a witness under a $500 bond.

Foster has a wife and a fourteen-year-old daughter living at Brown's Mill, N. J.

ANTI-TRUST BILLS READY FOR CONGRESS

Judiciary Committee Completes Drafts of Measures.

Washington, Jan. 9. — The administration anti-trust legislation program was completed so far as the preliminary work by a sub-committee of the house committee on judiciary is concerned.

Bills have been prepared covering every phase of the trust question and are ready for submission to the entire committee soon after congress reassembles on Monday. The judiciary committee members will confer next week with President Wilson, and the anti-trust legislation details will be made clear.

Representative Clayton, of Alabama, chairman of the committee, made the announcement of the completion of this work in co-operation with Representatives Carlin, of Virginia, chairman of the sub-committee on trusts, and Representative Floyd, of Arkansas.

The views of the president and of the Democratic party as expressed in the national platform of 1912 have been followed in the preparation of the bills, according to Clayton. He refused to give the details of the proposed legislation, but said the Sherman anti-trust law had been left intact. He also stated that one of the bills would cover interlocking directorates.

It is known that this bill has been drawn so it would not take effect until two years after its passage. This is to permit corporations to effect any necessary reorganization.

Members of the committee believe other large interests will follow the example of J. P. Morgan & Co. in withdrawing from such directorates.

BRYAN ON G. O. P. SPLIT

Says It Will Never Be Healed, and Democrats Will Profit by It.

Chicago, Jan. 9. — Secretary of State William J. Bryan believes that the split in the Republican ranks will never be healed. He said—with a broad smile:

"This division insures Democratic success. The Democratic party approaches the coming congressional elections with supreme confidence."

Secretary Bryan arrived in Chicago from the west to deliver an address at the annual meeting of the Chicago Real Estate Board. He was the guest of the Chicago Press club, and in the afternoon he addressed students of the Northwestern University Law School. He will carry back to Washington an invitation to President Wilson to address the Union League club, of Chicago, on Washington's Birthday.

BEGIN PROBE OF POSTOFFICES

Sweeping Investigation of Entire Service to be Made.

SEEK TO IMPROVE IT

The Object Is a Standardization of Methods and to Increase the Efficiency.

Philadelphia, Jan. 9. — A sweeping investigation of the entire postal service of the United States, intended primarily to effect a standardization of methods and an increase in efficiency, was begun in this city by a committee of six experts appointed by Postmaster General Burleson.

Similar commissions are at work in all the larger cities in the country, giving attention to local as well as general needs.

The investigators in Philadelphia are William R. Spilman, superintendent of the city delivery division of the postoffice department; J. H. Callan, an assistant to the first assistant postmaster general; J. Leo Skelley, a special agent; Frank Frazier, a postmaster, all of Washington, together with John V. Heitby, a Philadelphia inspector. Another inspector will join the commission later.

Philadelphia, according to Mr. Spilman, has been selected by the postmaster general as one of the places where model offices are to be organized, equipped and operated as "dynamos from which to charge the entire chain and system of offices throughout the country." It will be the effort at these initial points, he said, to discover the best practicable way to administer the postal facilities at hand and to test out new devices and methods.

Every phase of the postal service in Philadelphia will be studied, including the collection and delivery of mail, methods of handling in the postoffices, the character of the various buildings and facilities for dispatching mail by trains. Whatever of value is discovered in Philadelphia may be applied in other cities and vice versa.

Mr. Spilman said that if the commission found that Philadelphia was in need of a new postoffice building it would not hesitate to make such a recommendation to the department at Washington. If it is discovered, he said, that certain sections of the city are not receiving the number of deliveries that the volume of mail justifies, such increase as may appear necessary will also be recommended.

"It is the purpose of the postmaster general to make the postal department a real servant of the people," Mr. Spilman added, "and anything that can be done in Philadelphia to bring the service up to its highest possible efficiency will be done. When the reports from other cities are received the most effective method of transacting postal business will be evolved and put into effect in Philadelphia, as elsewhere."

Mr. Spilman said Mr. Burleson had begun the study of plans looking to a greater uniformity in methods and practices in the postoffices of the country immediately after he assumed office. In organizing the field service for this work, he said, the country has been divided into three groups, the Atlantic states, the middle west states and the Pacific states. At least two of officials from the first assistant postmaster's office have been assigned to each group.

TRIED TO FIRE DEPT. STORE

Boy Starts Blaze in Wanamaker's
"Just For the Excitement."

Philadelphia, Jan. 9. — James R. Weldon, a fourteen-year-old errand boy in the Wanamaker store, was arrested, charged with attempted arson.

The boy admitted to city hall detectives that he tried to set fire to the Wanamaker building "just for the excitement."

A blaze was discovered Wednesday afternoon on the third floor at the Chestnut street end of the building and was extinguished by automatic sprinklers without damage. It was started in a lot of waste paper.

A similar blaze was discovered on Thursday at the same place and was extinguished similarly. The boy admitted starting both fires. He will be given a hearing at the house of detention.

Plum Pudding Kills Two.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 9. — Promaine poisoning, believed to have been caused by eating canned plum pudding, claimed the second member of the family of Harvey Johnson, of Elizabeth, Allegheny county. The plum pudding was eaten Dec. 27, and the seven members of the family all became ill. A daughter, aged fifteen months, died last Saturday, and Ada Johnson, aged twelve, succumbed on Thursday. The other five members of the family are ill, and the condition of three of them is serious.

Goes Blind at Meal, Regains Sight.

Mount Holly, N. J., Jan. 9. — While he was eating his dinner, Charles E. Gilbert, a constable, was stricken with blindness. After being confined in a dark room his sight was restored. It is thought he was stricken with paralysis of the eye, caused by the strain of wearing a pair of cracked glasses.

Archaeological Find.

Some interesting remains of an old Friary have been brought to light during alterations to Cromwell House the site of the birthplace of Oliver Cromwell, at Huntingdon, England. The remains include the base of a wall with parts of two doorways. The foundation of a large chimney stack has been found, and in one hearth ashes still remained. The house is believed to have been founded by the Augustinian Friars shortly before 1285.

Various Edible Insects.

The Creoles of Bourbon are said to broil and eat the cockroach. Ants, cooked in various ways are eaten by many different tribes. The Africans cook them in butter while in Brazil a resinous sauce is used. The Siamese use the eggs of the ant. The white ant is eaten raw by some, while ant pite is a delicacy among some of the natives of India. The natives of Ceylon are said to eat bees and the Mexicans eat a cake made out of bees' eggs.

Inspiration in Regret.

The life without regret is the life without gain. Regret is but the light of fuller wisdom from our past, illuminating our future. It means that we are wiser today than we were yesterday. This new wisdom means responsibility, new privileges; it is a new chance for a better life. But if regret remain merely "regret," it is useless; it must become the revelation of new possibilities, and the inspiration and source of strength to realize them, each other; as love increases prudence.—William C. Jordan.

THREE HELD FOR CREDIT SWINDLE

Waged Bankrupt Fakers Under Bail in Philadelphia.

CHARGE FRAUD BY MAIL

They Are Accused of Swindling Manufacturers Out of $300,000 Worth of Goods Through Conspiracy.

Philadelphia, Jan. 9.—On the charge of operating one of the cleverest schemes to defraud which postal inspectors have ever had occasion to investigate, three men were held under heavy bail for a further hearing on Jan. 19, when arraigned before United States Commissioner Edmunds.

Their operations are alleged to have netted them more than $300,000. The men are Charles J. Greenfield, alias "Bad Eye Charley," who was held under bonds of $12,000; Samuel Brown and Myer Rotman, both of whose bail was fixed at $10,000.

The base of the operations of the trio was in Philadelphia and St. Louis, and the frauds themselves have extended over a period of six years.

Greenfield, who is said to be the organizer of the conspiracy, operates the Southwark Knitting company. Rotman and Brown are ostensibly engaged in the same business.

The men were arrested after long months of investigation on the part of the postal authorities under Chief Postal Inspector Cortelyou. Cortelyou was the only witness.

In testifying Cortelyou told how the men had worked their alleged swindle. They organized separate firms, it was declared, handling knitted goods. One firm would order a moderate supply of stock from a wholesale house and pay its bill promptly. The second firm would then order a much larger supply, giving the name of the first firm as reference.

When the goods were delivered to the designated address, they were at once shipped to another city, and the firm which received it would file an application for bankruptcy. Wholesale firms all over the United States are alleged to have been victimized in this manner.

The alleged swindlers were trailed through railroad shipments and bankruptcy court proceedings in several states by G. D. West, of the St. Louis Credit Men's association; Postal Inspector J. M. Swenson, of St. Louis, and Postal Inspectors Cortelyou, Smith and Nicholson, of Philadelphia.

The men had returned to Philadelphia from a tour of the country when arrested. They also operated, it is said, in East St. Louis, Kansas City, Harrisburg, Reading, Carlisle, Wilmington, Del., and Newark, N. J. In these cities they had offices or stores.

The most recent scheme, said by the postal inspectors to have been operated by the prisoners, was the Great Western Jobbing company, which the men are said to have left Philadelphia to establish in St. Louis.

At the same time they started the firm of Morris M. Lubovitz, in East St. Louis. The Lubovitz firm bought a small order from an eastern firm and made prompt settlement, discounting its bill.

The Great Western Jobbing company next ordered a large bill of goods from the eastern firm and gave the firm of Lubovitz as its credit reference. The Lubovitz firm had established its credit by prompt settlement, and its word was therefore accepted as sufficient guarantee for the Great Western Jobbing company.

As soon as the goods arrived they were reshipped to retail stores in the east, principally in Philadelphia and small up-state towns.

When creditors finally began to press the hand decamped over night, and did not even leave an inkling as an asset for the deceived creditors, the inspectors relate. Nothing was left of the Great Western Jobbing company except the name on the office door.

NO BANK DECISION YET

Secretaries Say They Have Formed No Conclusion For Regional Banks.

New York, Jan. 9.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, who left New York for Boston, after a hearing on the question of regional reserve districts, as provided under the new currency law, issued the following statement:

"Neither Secretary Houston nor I have expressed, directly or indirectly, any opinion or formed any conclusions on the banking questions, now the subject of investigation by the organization committee under the federal reserve act, nor shall we do so until all the facts have been submitted.

"We are impressed with the great responsibility resting upon us and with the necessity for impartial consideration of the views of all sections of the country before a decision is rendered. To avoid the possibility of misunderstanding, we desire to say that all inferences and statements to the contrary may be accepted as unauthorized."

Severe Bronchial Cough

Doctors Feared Lung Trouble, Restored to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physicians and started on 'Vinol'. Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol'."

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

SHOE CLEARANCE

A backward season has left us overstocked. There's only one right way to have a sale. Cut the prices and cut them deep, so that anyone can readily see their value at a glance. That's what we propose to do. You have never seen good shoes sold in Gettysburg at such prices before and we predict that it will be a long while before you get a similar opportunity to buy shoes at these prices again. You know our reputation for square dealing and know if we announce a sale like this it means a saving for you and your family that you cannot afford to overlook.

It's unfortunate for us to slaughter such a fine stock but we must dispose of it and make room for the coming spring stock. However, it's cheaper to slaughter the shoes than to carry them over.

Medical advertising LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and No body will know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded, streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy", you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

Effective November 16, 1913.
